

HPV & HPV Vaccine Patient Education

Get two FREE animated videos to help educate your patients and their families about HPV and the importance of HPV vaccination for cancer prevention.

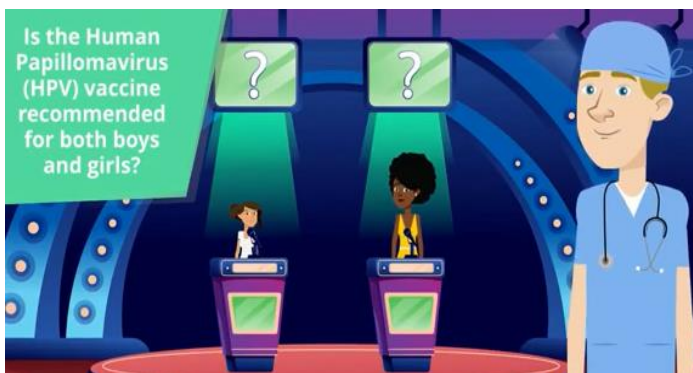

Did you know?

Adolescents can receive the HPV vaccine as early as age 9. Early education and provider recommendation is KEY!

Over 90% of all HPV-associated cancers can be prevented by the HPV vaccine.

HPV Vaccine: Cancer Prevention

A 3-minute discussion on HPV and HPV-associated cancers, and how the HPV vaccine is cancer prevention.

The Vaccine Scene: Learn More about the HPV Vaccine

A 7-minute Q&A session to answer frequently asked questions about HPV and the HPV vaccine within a fun game show setting.

If you would like more information about implementing these and other educational materials in your practice, please contact Danielle Collins at 800.642.8686, Ext. 105 or via email at dcollins@qualityinsights.org.